AMULET

Cover—A class ring is a tangible symbol that students carry away with them as having been a part of our school and a part of what happens here. Students are not anxious to leave the school behind without taking away a souvenir that has meaning, like a class ring. This symbol represents the pride and loyalty that students feel for their school. A class ring is another amulet, a good luck charm, a symbol of belonging. Thus the class ring was chosen for the cover design.

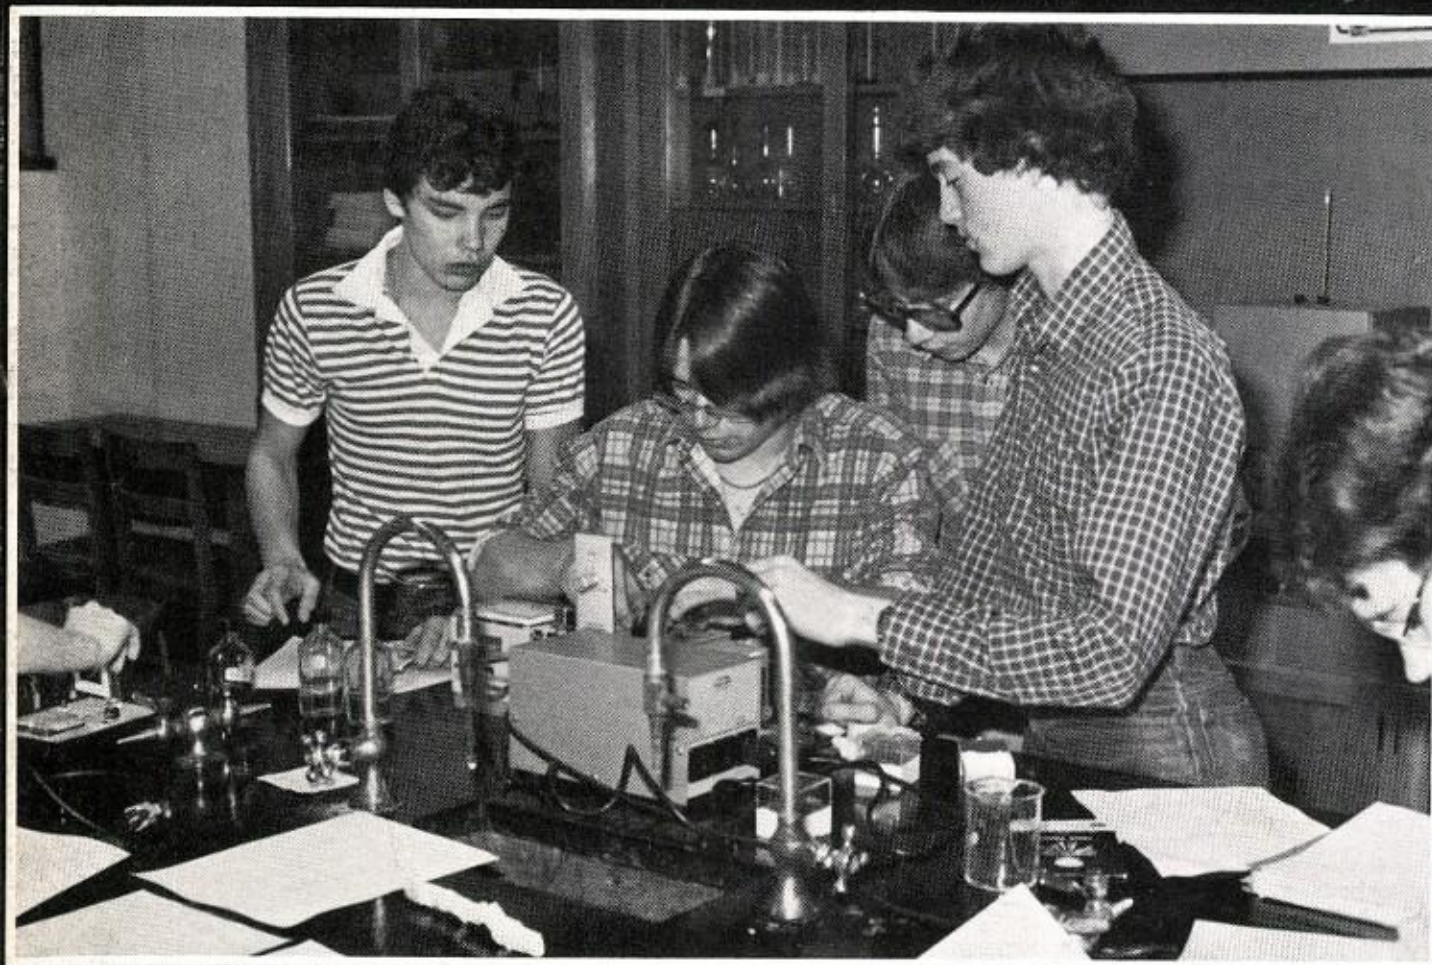

Foreword—This year marks Limestone's 30th anniversary. And, like most anniversaries, that calls for a celebration, the celebration of talent. For 30 years Limestone has been the incubator and microcosm for the development and expression of talent, marvelous talent, expressed in every direction imaginable. Talent is expressed at every desk, in every classroom, in every hallway, in the auditorium, in the gymnasium, on the athletic field, and in the community. The multi-faceted gem that is Limestone, the hub of our environment, reflects all of these varied and diverse, major and minor, great and small talents.

Every student that crosses the threshold of Limestone's doors brings with him something special, something different, something unique, and something that no one else has—himself—his individuality. And the expression of that individuality is what creates all of the talents that are seen and expressed here. Some of these talents are in their early development and some are more advanced. Some will develop no further, while others are only beginning to grow. That growth is nourished and molded by a more mature and experienced talent that is seen in the classrooms—a guiding talent. Everything that goes on in this building is directed toward helping students to develop their talents.

For 30 years Limestone High School and its staff have contributed to the development and talents of nearly 10,000 students, and it is these students who have made Limestone the school that it is today.

Dedication — Mr. John Gross

Mr. and Mrs. Gross came to Limestone in 1963 when they entered as students as John Gross and Peggy Pitzer. They were very active in school functions and served in various capacities including class officers. After graduation in 1967, they attended college, ultimately completing their degrees at the University of Montana, graduating in 1972.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross began teaching at Limestone in 1973 and 1972, respectively; Mr. Gross teaches in the science department, and Mrs. Gross teaches in the business department.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross were class sponsors for the Class of '76. In addition, they have been the sponsors for girls track teams, girls basketball teams, and Outdoors Unlimited Club. Mrs. Gross has also been a cheerleader sponsor. Besides teaching classes and working with students and various teams and clubs, Mr. and Mrs. Gross have been very active in the Limestone teacher organizations and have been deeply concerned for the welfare of teachers. Outside of school, the Grosses enjoy backpacking, traveling, camping, and reading.

In keeping with our theme of talent, the AMULET staff has chosen to dedicate the 1983 AMULET to these two very talented people who have expressed their talents by working with both students and teachers. Thus we are proud to present this dedication to Mrs. Peggy Gross and Mr. John Gross.

Vice Versa Enjoyed by All Who Attended

Doug Oertley and Tammy Christianson stand at the door watching the happy couples arrive.

"Are you ready to dance?" asks Kim Rodgers to Mike Euteneuer.

Vicki Bressner and Anita Foster helped out by serving punch.

Waiting anxiously for the music to start are Tim Evans and Drindia Doering.

A food sale was held to raise money for Easter Seals during Vice-Versa Week.

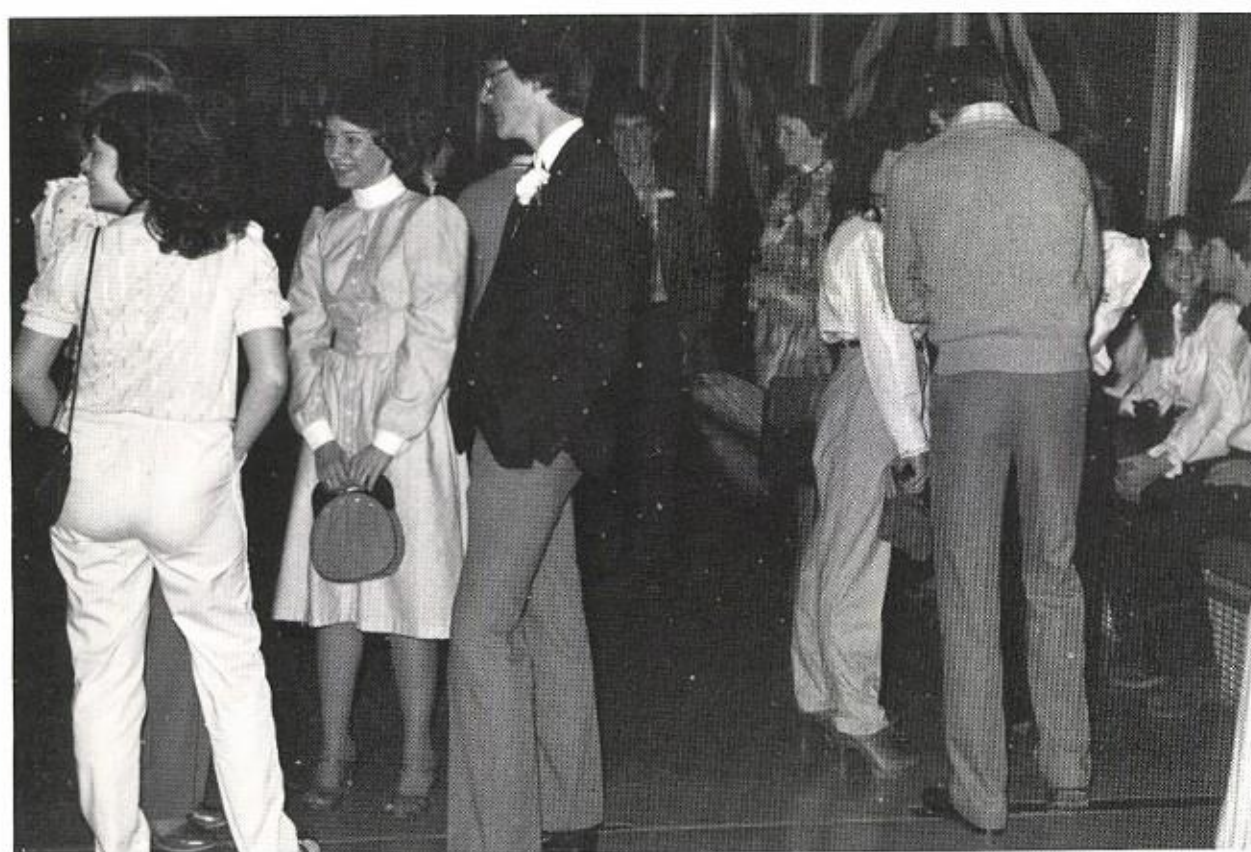

Vice-Versa Profits Go to Easter Seals

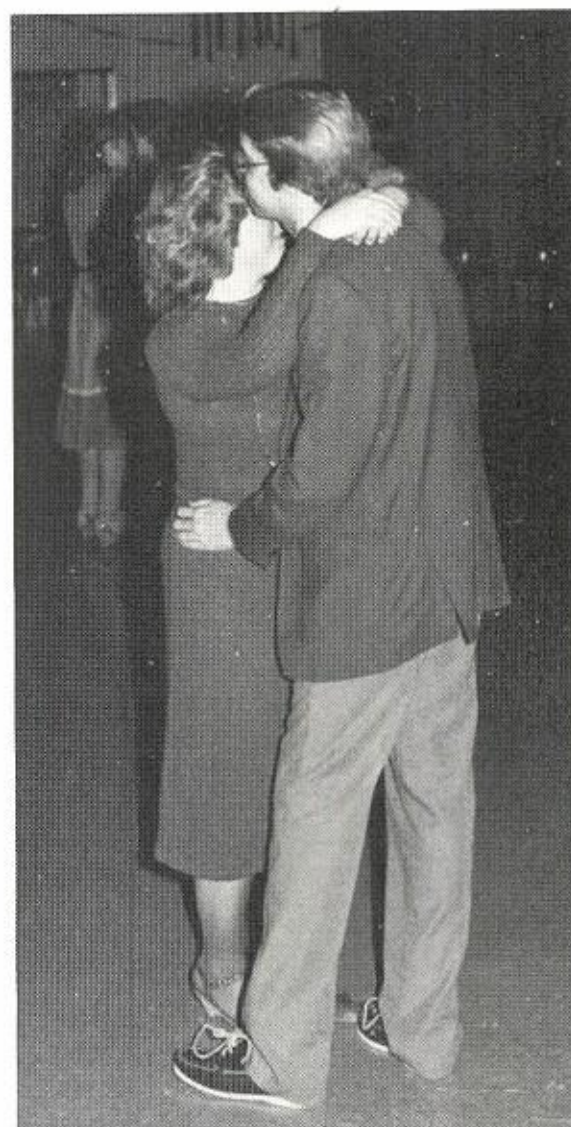

Kelly Haag buys vice-versa tickets for her and Dave Geer.

"Don't you dare take our pictures!" says Marcy Shirley.

Couples chat a while before the dance begins.

Cindi Noe and Mike Johnson have fun dancing the night away.

A slow dance is enjoyed by many couples.

"Fiddler on the Roof" Brings Down the House

The fiddler on the roof (Mike Johnson) scratches out a happy tune.

Bill Gabelhausen and Julie Rosenbohm gave an outstanding performance as Tevye and Golde.

"Now I have everything," sings Perchik (Phil Smith) as Hodel (Angie Williams) accepts his marriage proposal.

Motel (Steve Hines) and Tzeitel (Cathy Butler) were married without the help of a matchmaker.

Spring Performance a Smashing Success

Shprintze and Bielke peel potatoes while Perchik teaches them some lessons from the Bible.

Yente, the matchmaker, (Tammy Williams) tells Golde she's found the perfect match for Tzeitel.

Chava (Vonda Demmin) risks losing Tevye's love when she marries Fydeka (Jeff Adams) because he is of a different faith.

The Constable (Terry Wittmer) tells Tevye that he has three days to leave Anatevka.

“Today I am a Horse,” says Tevye.

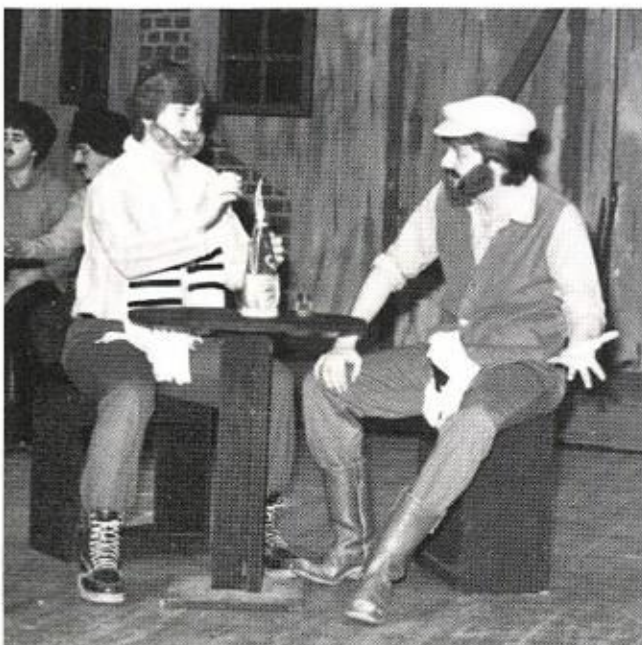

The cast of “Fiddler on the Roof”.

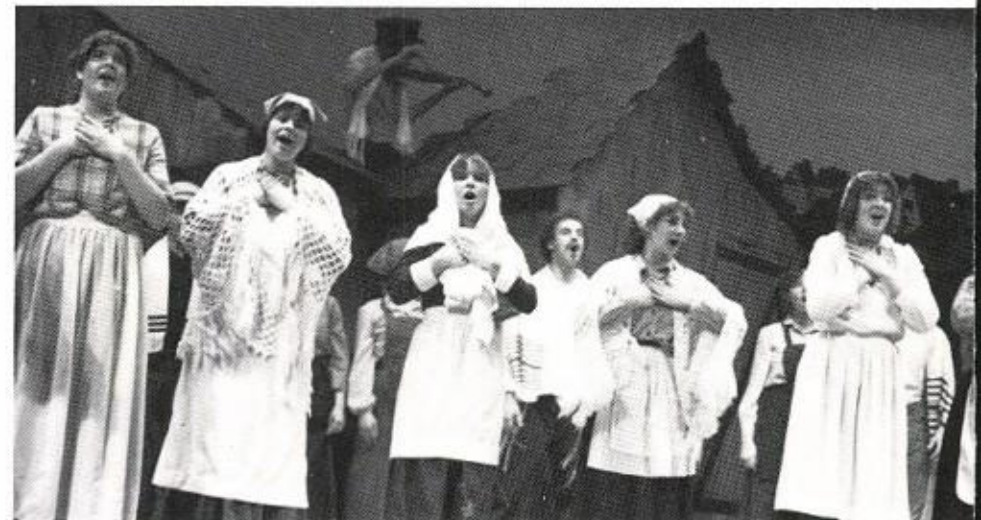

Yente tells Avrahm (Jeff Peterson) that she has the perfect match for his son.

The stage crew for “Fiddler on the Roof” are Rich Milsteadt, Sean Woerner, Tony Gienow, John Beadles, Steve Crank, and Brad Guthrie.

Lazar Wolf (Tim Churchill) asks Tevye’s permission to marry Tzeitel.

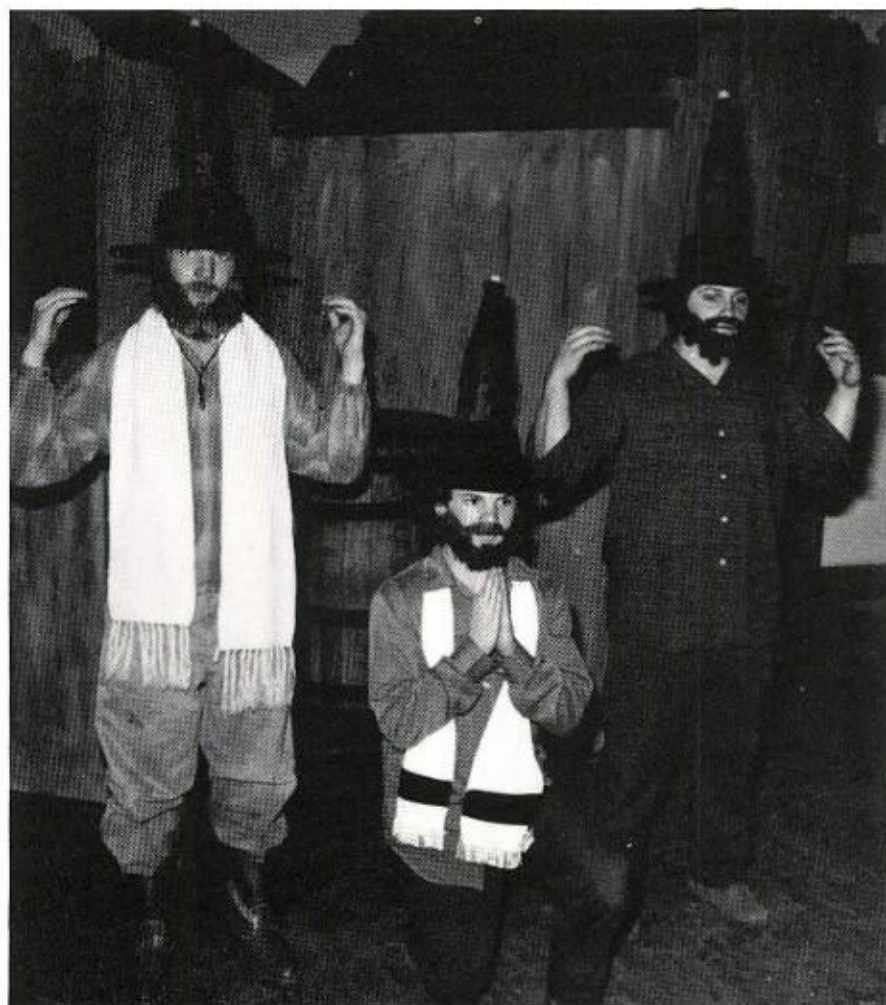

“Who must know the way to make a proper home? . . . The mamas!”

“Have I Got a Match for You!” beams Yente

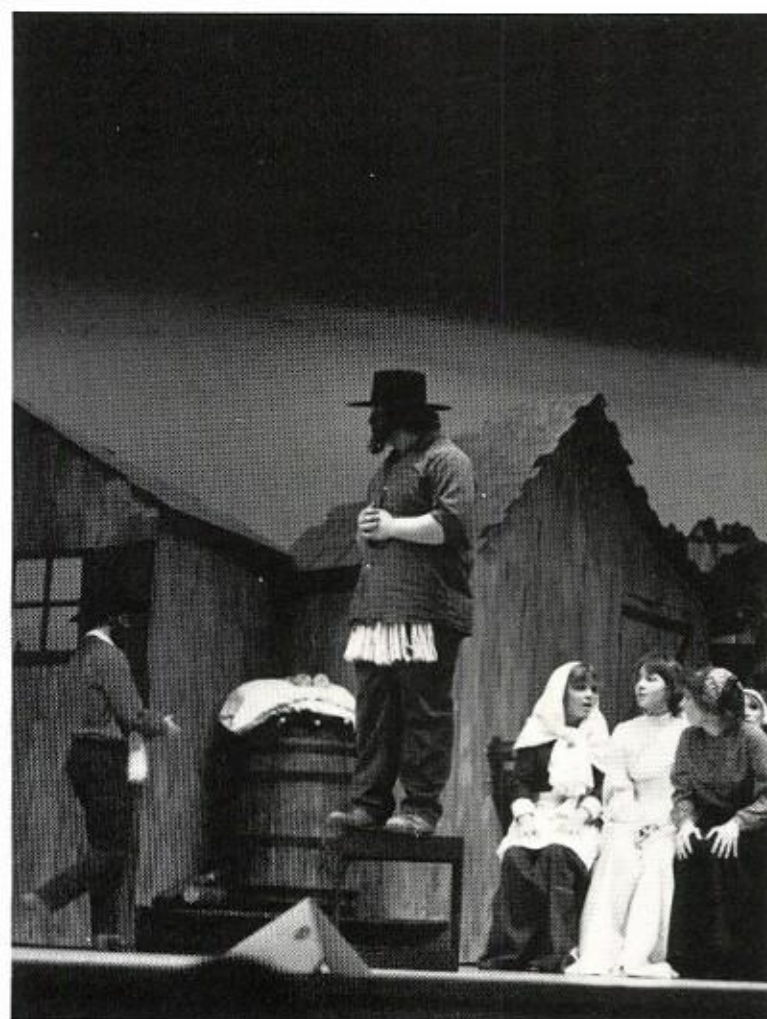

“Matchmaker, matchmaker, find me a find, catch me a catch, match me a match,” sing Hodel (Angie Williams), Tzeitel (Cathy Butler), and Chava (Vonda Demmin).

Avrahm (Jeff Peterson), Nachum (Doug Oertley), and Mordcha (Steve Andrews) display their talents in the bottle dance.

Typical tourist Vicki Bush guards against the sun.

Tony Pence and Dave Cramer manufactured chair backs to be used for the madrigal dinner.

Congratulations!

Each year, for the past thirty years, a senior class has prepared to leave the halls of Limestone Community High School, to venture forth in the unsheltered life of the big world outside of school. The Class of 1983, is no exception. With diploma in hand, graduates from the Class of '83 will go out and seek their fortunes in the form of jobs, marriage, careers, college, and military service. All that was high school will be left far behind.

While seated in the gymnasium listening to the commencement speakers, some will recall the homecoming last fall and the activities in which they participated. The skit only took third place and the seniors tied for second place with the juniors in the float competition. This wasn't a very good showing! Now they would have to do better for the Spirit Week Competition—and they did. Their loverboy murals and red crepe paper among the screams and commotion swept them into first place.

There were some wonderfully fine people in this class. Dave Welch won the DAR Award; Ron Simmons won the Business Student of the Year Award; Don Norman received high honors by being chosen to play first chair trumpet in the Ambassador Band traveling to Europe. Bobbi White received an appointment to West Point, and Dave Welch was accepted to Annapolis Naval Academy. Many members of the class accomplished a great deal. Some of their achievements can be seen in the pages of this book.

The Senior Class was led by President Brent Modglin, Vice-president Mark Hagel, Secretary Sheri Mingus, and treasurer Chris Dearing. Jody Wetterauer led our student government as president of the Student Council. Our dedicated advisers were Mrs. Windle, Mrs. Schneider and Mr. Dennis Johnson.

Hopefully, they will be worthy of the responsibilities placed before them as they approach the future with confidence.

Juniors Sell Candy For Money Project

The Class of 1984 can look back on a successful junior year that was filled with many achievements. The third year began with considerable enthusiasm and excitement. Juniors received second place for the homecoming skit, Popeye, and tied for second place in the float competition. Susie Sears was elected as Junior Attendant.

Candy was sold to raise money for the expenses of the Junior-Senior Prom. This year's prom was held on May 7 in the school cafeteria. "Up Where We Belong" was the winning decision for the prom theme. A fun-filled night of dining and dancing to Eddie Booe made it a joyful and entertaining event. The First Academic Awards Ceremony was held on November 10, where thirty-seven juniors received silver medals. Some got their first taste of varsity sports.

Spirit Week was held on January 24-28. Juniors had fun decorating the English hall with the color green. Juniors worked hard on Spirit Week activities in an attempt to gain the spirit paddle title. Michele Hedge led the Class of 1984 with pride as class president with Jill Lambie as the vice-president, Susie Sears as secretary, and Julie Rapp as the treasurer. These leaders did a fine job with activities in their class. They, as well as the rest of the junior class, were advised by Mr. Sanders, Mrs. Rastatter, and Miss Archibald. The Junior Class of 1984 is looking forward to a very successful Senior year and a bright and happy future.

Enthusiasm Soars for Sophomores

With one year of experience behind them the Sophomores began the year with tremendous enthusiasm and a spirit for competition. A considerable amount of interest, hardwork, and fun went into the construction of the winning float, "Rope the Ghosts," maintaining a winning record of two for two.

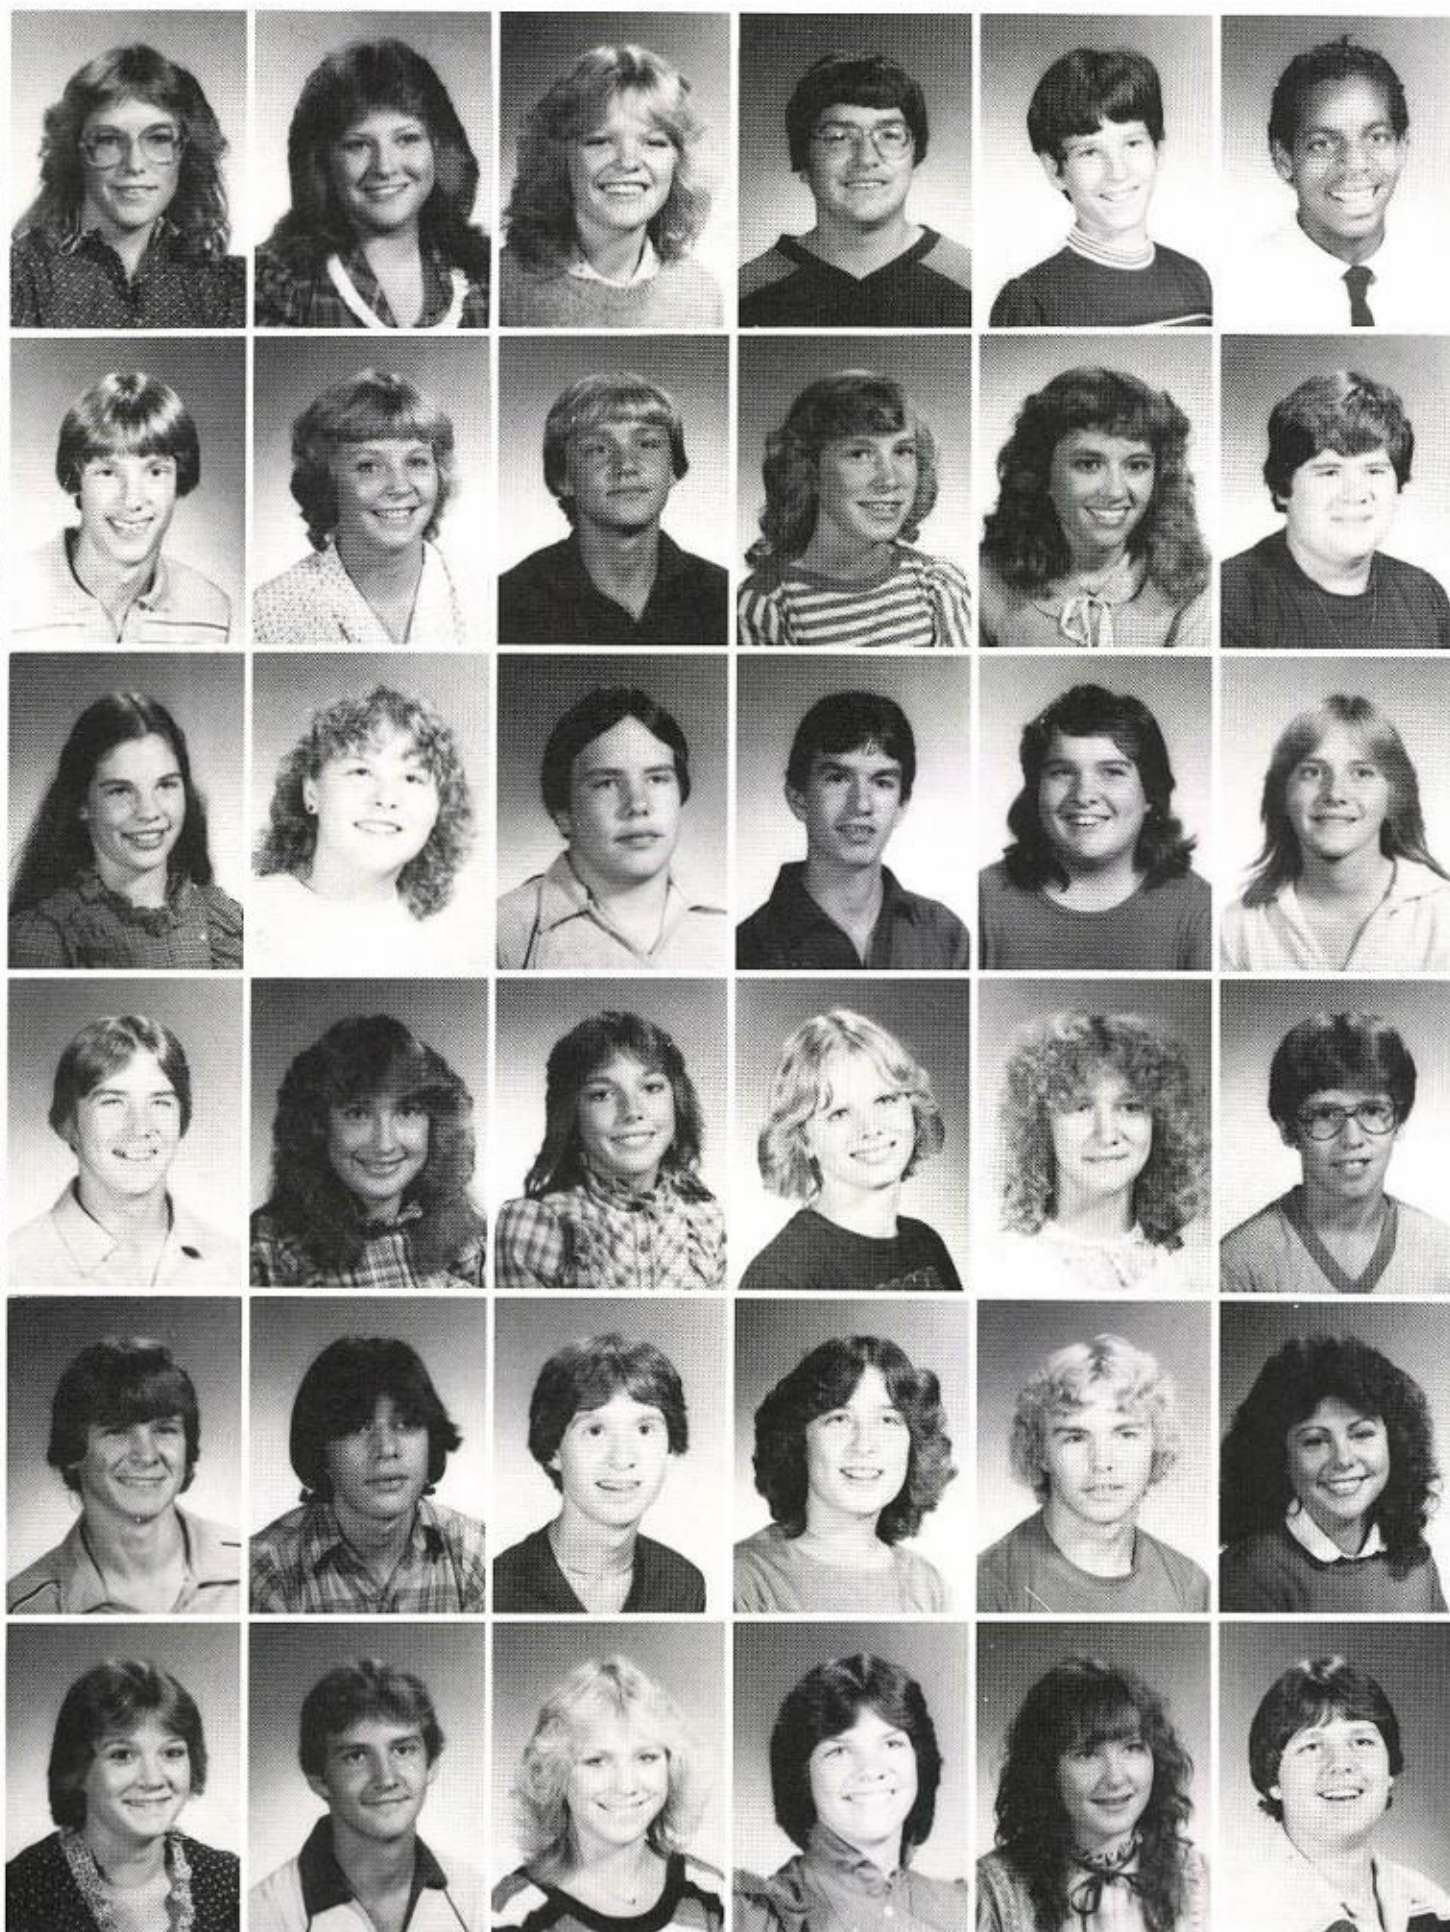

Continuing with the same theme, "The Clone Ranger," Dave Johnson and Dan Callahan stole the show and helped secure first place in the skit competition—Eat your heart out Seniors! Kim Rogers was chosen Sophomore Attendant. For Spirit Week Sophomores were given the color yellow and chose the theme "California Gold Rush."

Our class was led by Michelle Weisser, president; Kelley

French, vice president; Steve Nelson, secretary; and Carol Hagel, treasurer. Our class advisors, to whom we owe a big thank you, were: Mrs. Morris, Mr. Konya, and Miss Dobrydnia. Our class project this year was the sale of a variety of candy bars. The sale was very successful and the class was able to save for future expenses.

A great new goal was accomplished by most Sophomores who got their first taste of driver training. They received behind the wheel experience and finally got that all important driver's license.

We look to the future with high hopes and great expectations.

Class of 1986 Faces New Challenges

The Class of 1986 got their first glimpse of high school life as they roamed around searching for their classes in the long, endless halls. Freshmen discovered how much school spirit and enthusiasm there is here. They got a chance to do many different things and also got a chance to be involved in different sports with different people. The freshmen learned many new things the first week of school. They did not do very well in the Homecoming Week activities, but tried very hard in the skit and float competition. As it was only their first year, they lacked experience, but watch out next year! The freshmen found Spirit Week exciting and fun. Their color was blue. With much concern and enthusiasm they decorated the business hall. In spite of all the confusion, they did pretty well.

The Freshman Class was led by: president, Michelle Meinders; vice-president, Susie Hines; secretary, Christy Stranz; and treasurer, Angie Trotter. The class advisors, to whom the class was grateful for all the help and attention, were, Mr. Viers, Miss Reutter, Miss Gago, and Mrs. Johnson. The Class of 1986 put their best foot forward and gave it their best shot in all they did.

Many new adjustments were made by the members of this class including the big jump from grade school to high school. We look forward to many great things from you from now on.

Joe Dusch stopped the option effectively all season.

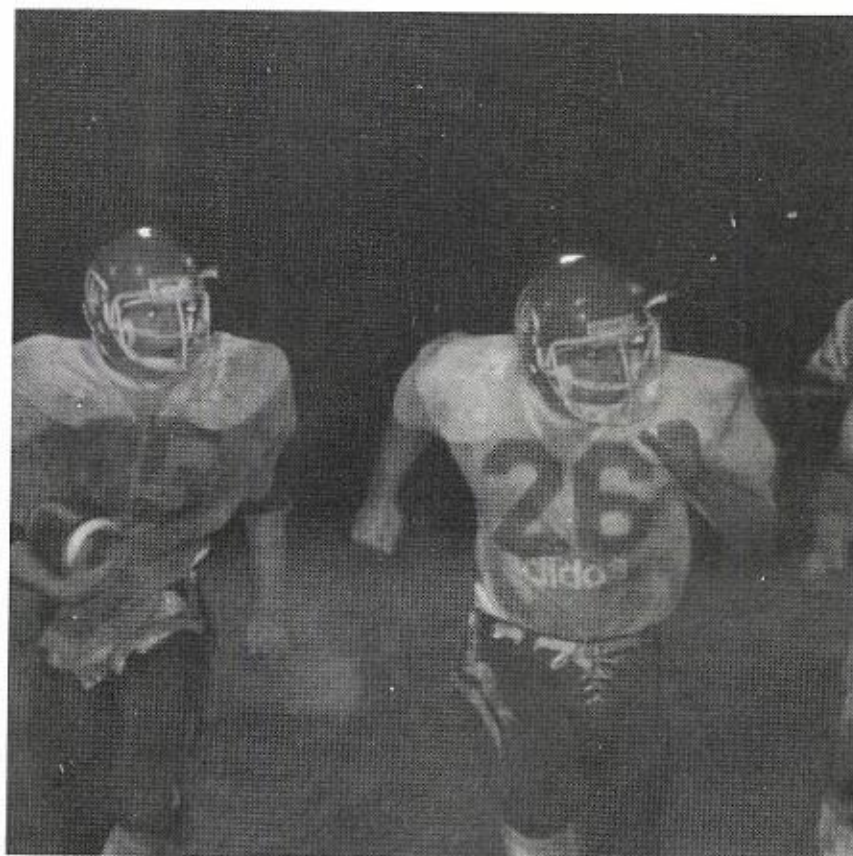

The Varsity Football season actually consisted of three seasons. The first season was pre-conference play. Conference play was considered the second season in the newly established Mid-Illini Conference! Our last game of the year was the third season.

The first season started slowly with a loss to Spalding (0-7). During the next two weeks, the season began taking shape with victories over Sterling and Streator both of which were ranked in the 5A poll, with scores of 30-12 and 18-13 respectively.

Conference action also started as slowly as our pre-conference play. It began with a loss to Washington, 29-37. The Rockets regained their winning ways with a Homecoming victory over IVC, 23-20. It was the third Homecoming victory in Limestone history. The fourth victim to fall to Limestone was Canton, with a score of 13-0. It was the only defensive shutout of the year. The Morton game shocked The Rocket fans as the Rockets were blanked 0-6. The last conference game was Senior Night at Frank C. Leach Stadium. That battle was against Metamora; the Rockets came out victorious by a score of 28-14.

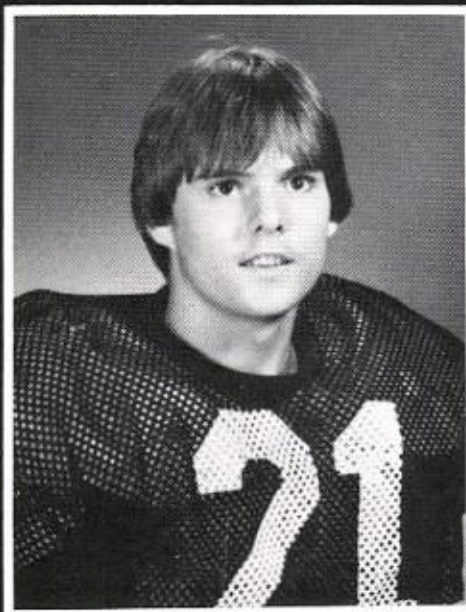

Traveling to Galesburg for the last game of the year began the third and final season. The Rockets ended the season by putting the Silver Streaks in their place 35-21.

Limestone placed 17 players on some type of all-conference team. Mike Lockwood was the only unanimous choice selected from Limestone. Others on the 1st team included: Doug Higgins, Joe Dusch, Craig Snedden, Doug Hauk, and Pat Beeney. Limestone's portion of the second team consisted of Steve Crank, David Owen, Scott Heathcoat, Jerry Betson, Mark Maloney, Curt Skotnicki, Aaron Lagaspi, and Wally Sutphin. Tim Schultz, Scott Miller, and Dan Becker were selected to the special-mention team.

Lady Rockets Tie For 2nd In Mid-Illini

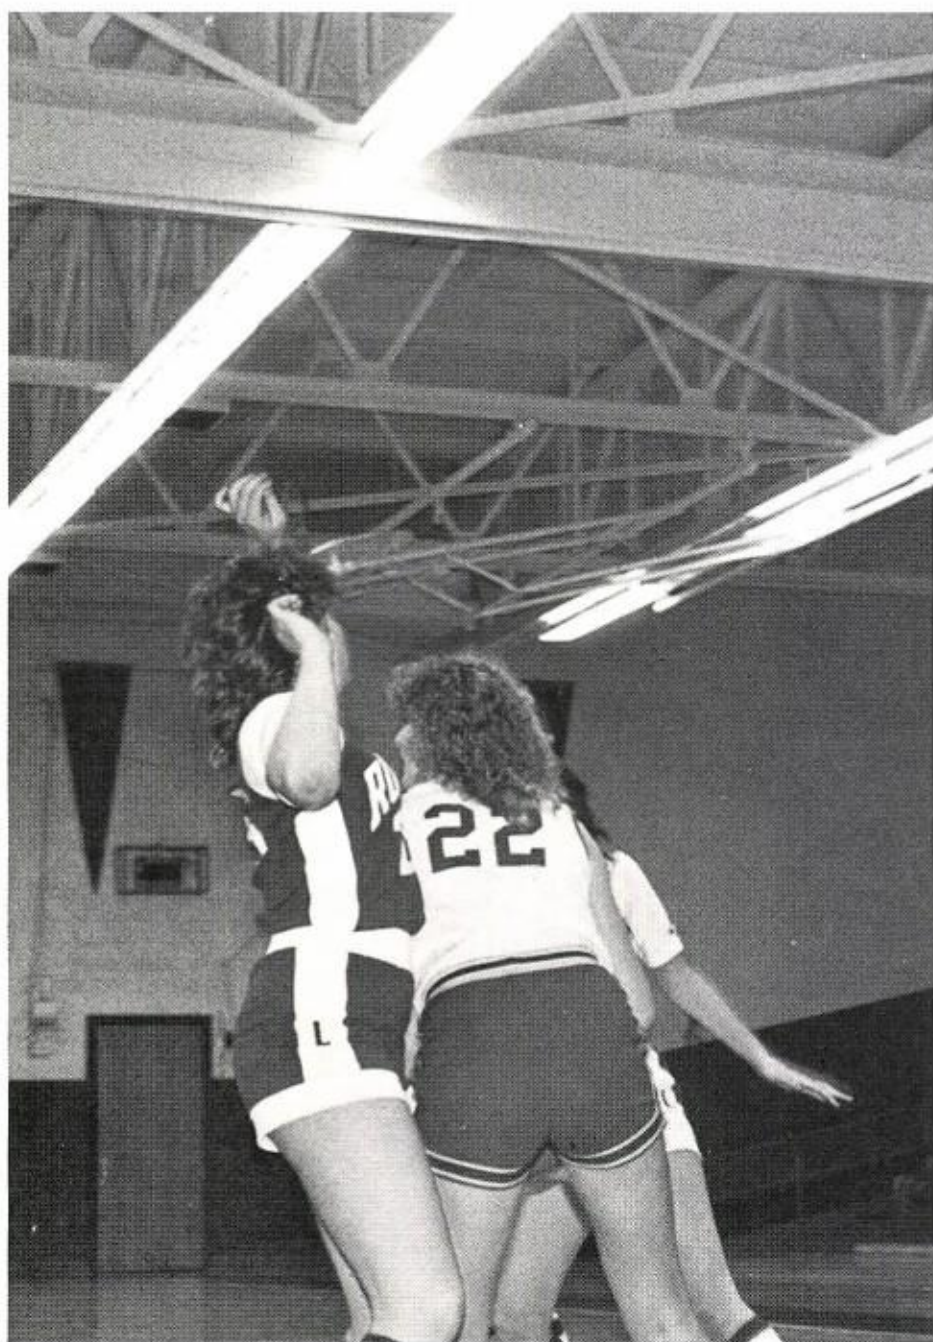

The girls' varsity basketball team ended its season this year with a 15-9 overall record and a 6-4 conference record—one which tied for second place in the conference. The team also won second place in the Limestone Invitational Tournament.

Amy Kasap and Joy Wright were both Mid-Illini All-Conference selections, and they were also team captains. Amy Kasap received the Most Valuable Player award, and Joy Wright received the award for the best free-throw percentage. This year's team had six other seniors on it in addition to Joy and Amy. They were: Kelley Gallagher, Deanna Jones, Rhonda Leddy, Sheila Meier, Debbie Rhea, and Julie Schmitt. Each girl will always hold a special place in the memories of her coaches and teammates.

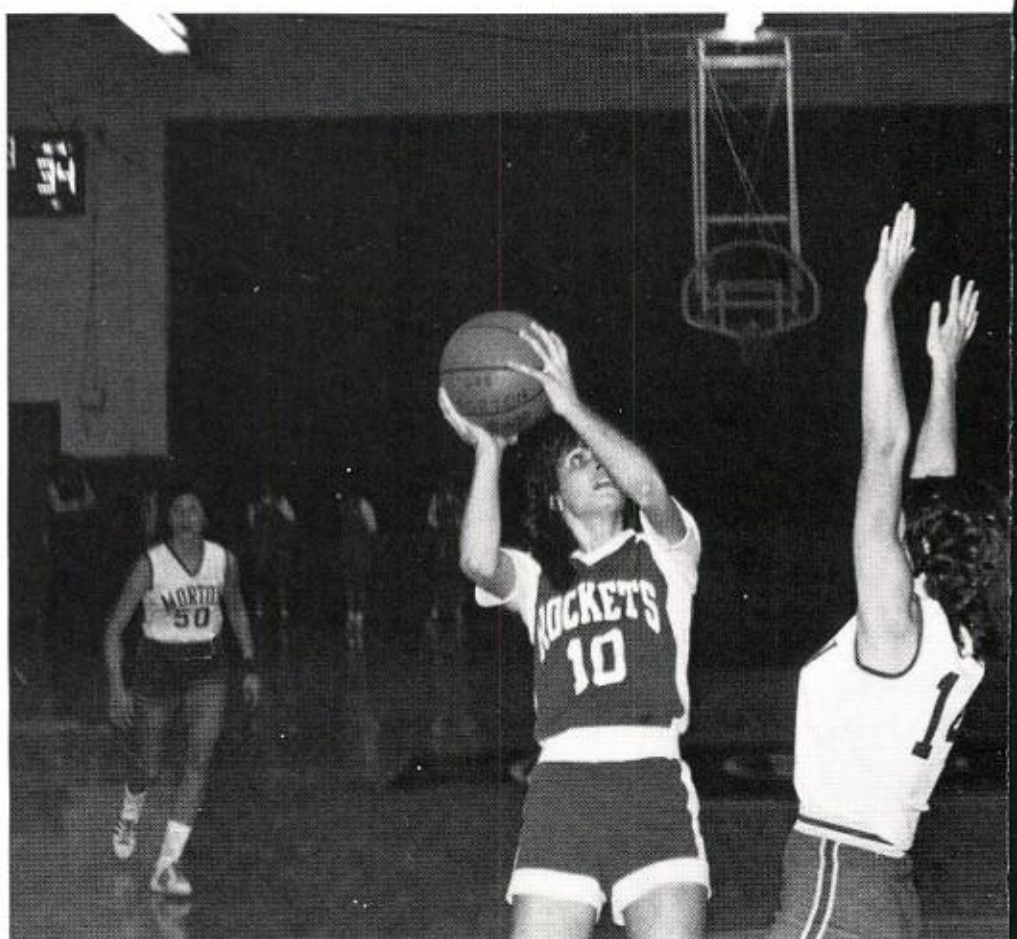

The frosh-soph Rockets enjoyed a 15-3 overall record and a 10-0 conference record, which earned for them the Mid-Illini Conference Championship. With a lot of hard work and dedication from this team, the future looks bright for the Limestone Rockets once again.

Managers for the girls team were John Nelson, Suzanne Ferrie, Angie Trotter, and Lisa Baker.

Amy Kasap was elected team captain, most valuable field event individual, and most valuable track individual.

Assistant Coach Allsop supervises the girls as they stretch.

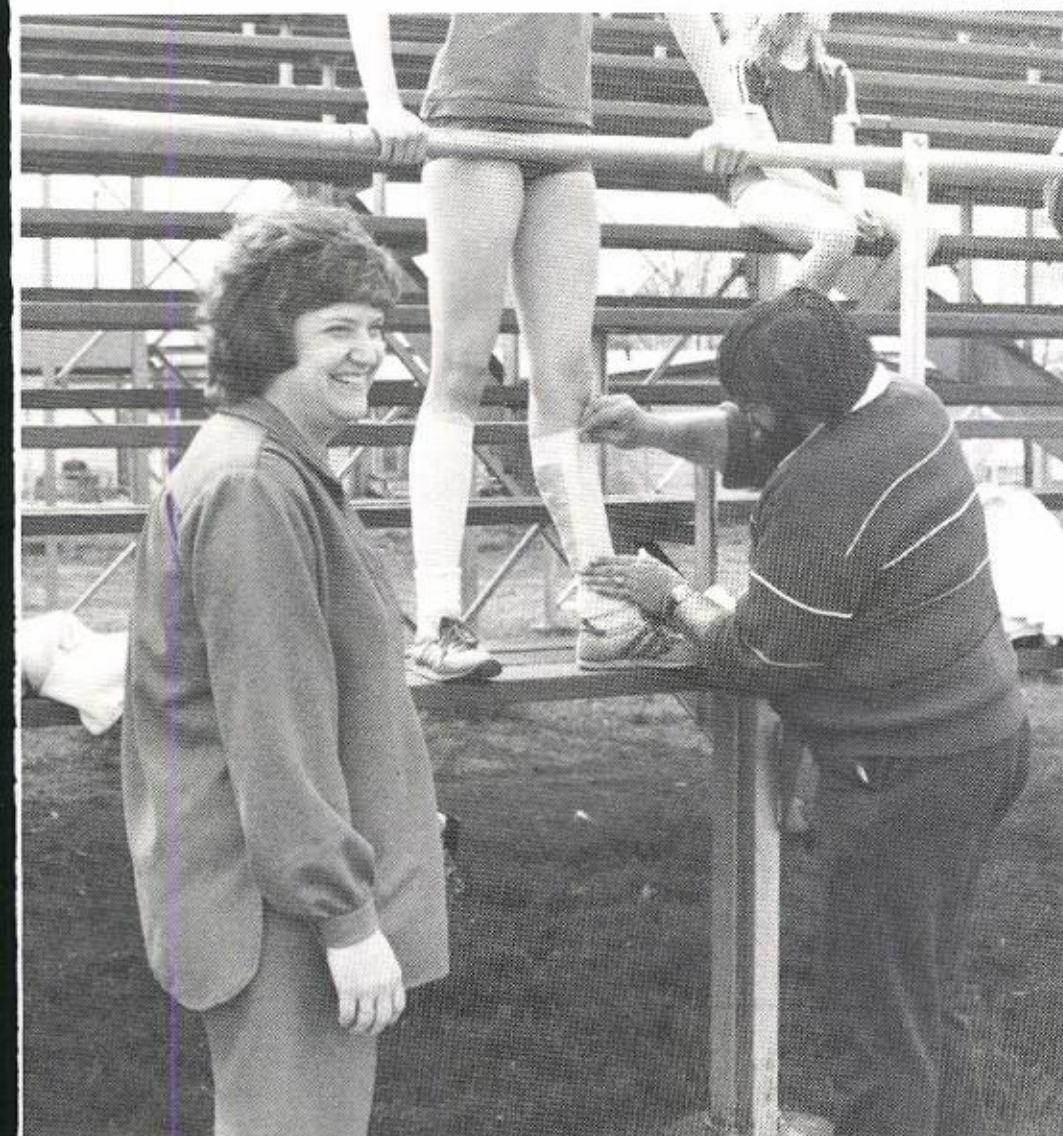

Kasap Takes All Track Honors

Charmin Partlow, Jill Lambie, Jill Riggensbach, Amy Kasap, and Sue Sulka were all part of a record breaking relay team.

Malinda Swank, Stacey Patton, and Chris Nakken are promising track sophomores.

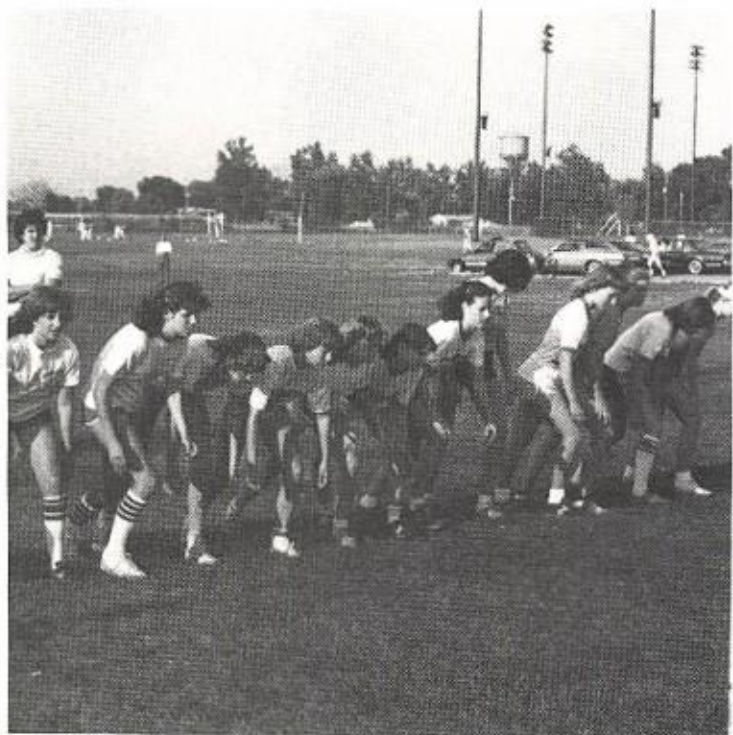

Mr. Gross tapes an ankle as Mrs. Gross approves his work.

The girls' varsity track team ended its season this year with a 5-7 dual meet record and Amy Kasap taking all honors as team captain, most valuable field individual, and also most valuable track individual.

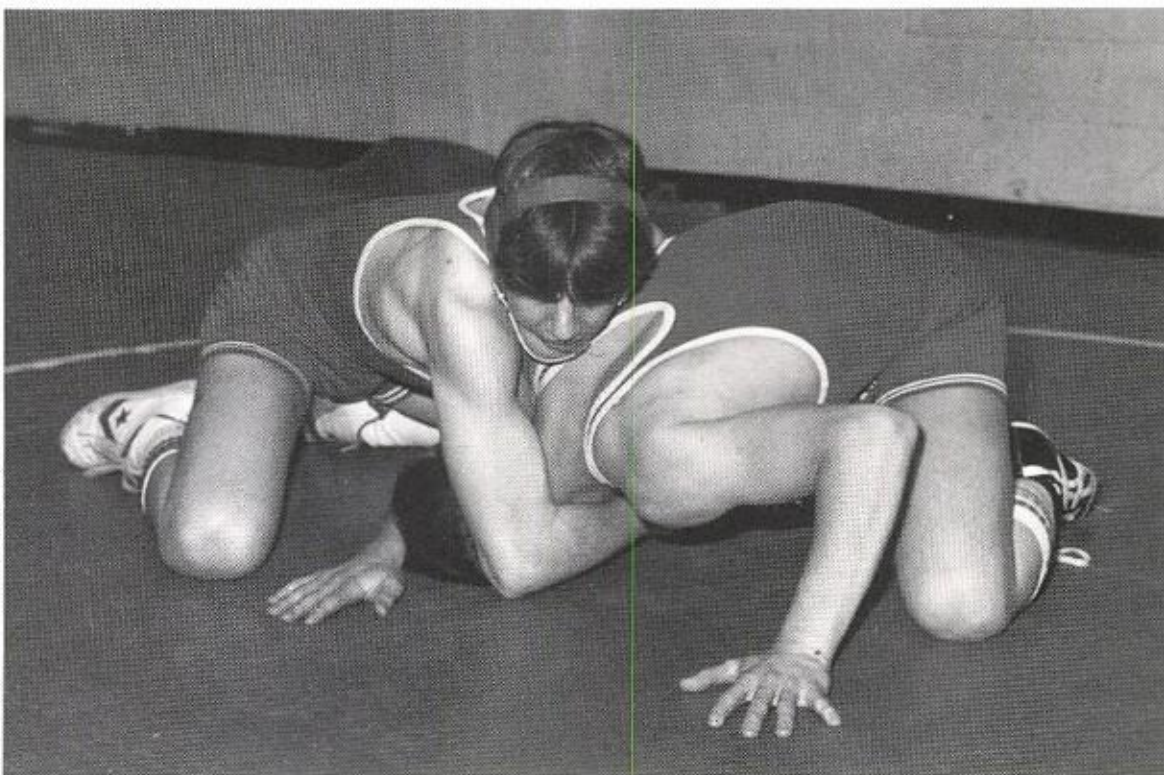

The frosh-soph dual meet record was 6-0, which earned them a first-place tie in the conference after the conference meet.

Jill Riggensbach, Sue Sulka, Amy Kasap, and Charmin Partlow broke the 400-meter relay school record of 52.9 with a time of 52.8 and also the 800-meter relay school record of 1:52.6 with a time of 1:50.4.

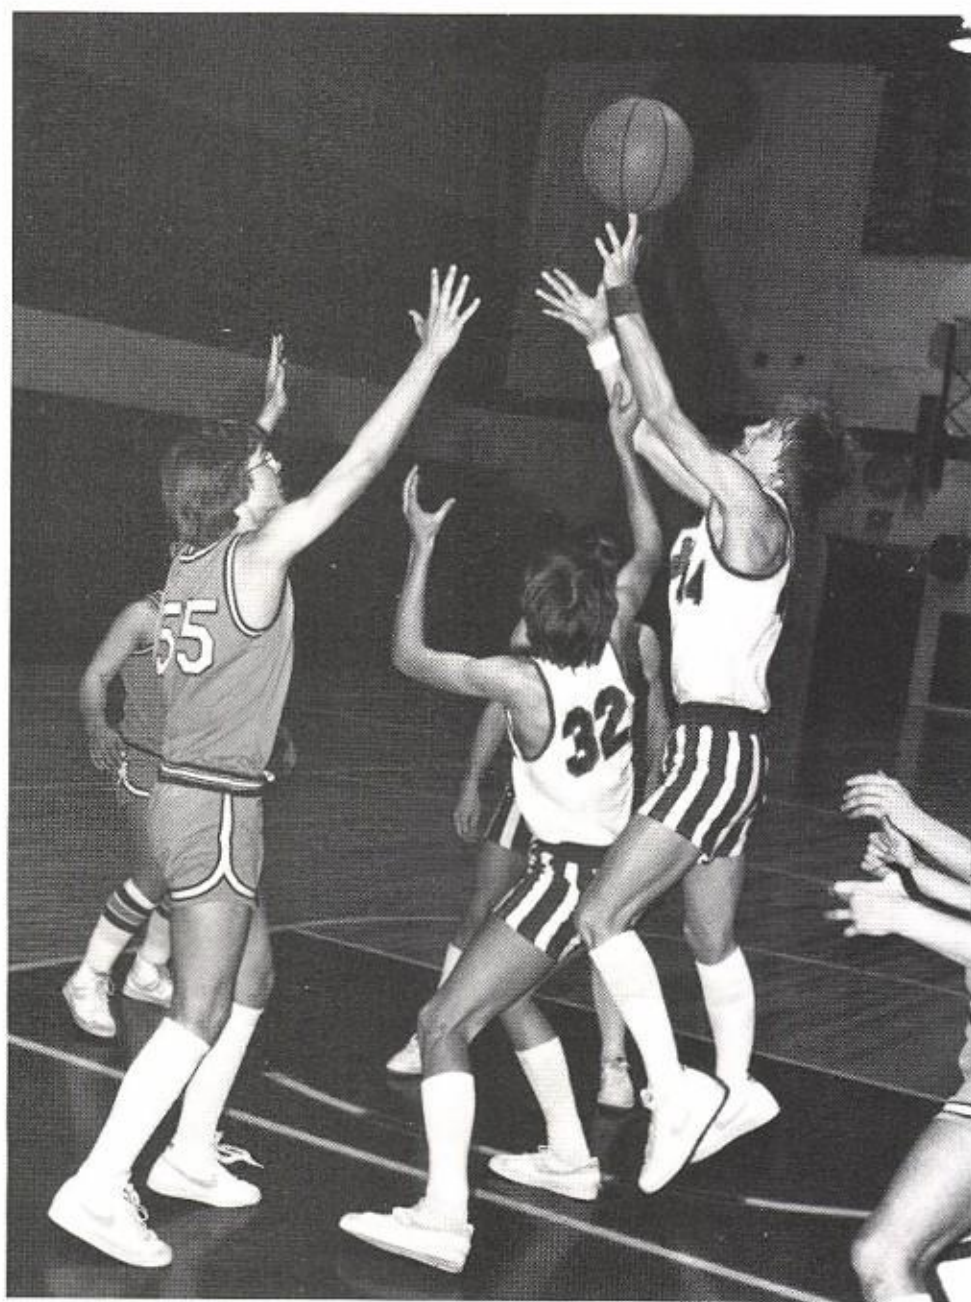

This was Coach Gross's last year in girls' track, and he wishes to extend to the new coach, Mr. Riggensbach, his assistant, Mrs. Allsop, and the whole team the best of luck in the future. His memories will last forever.

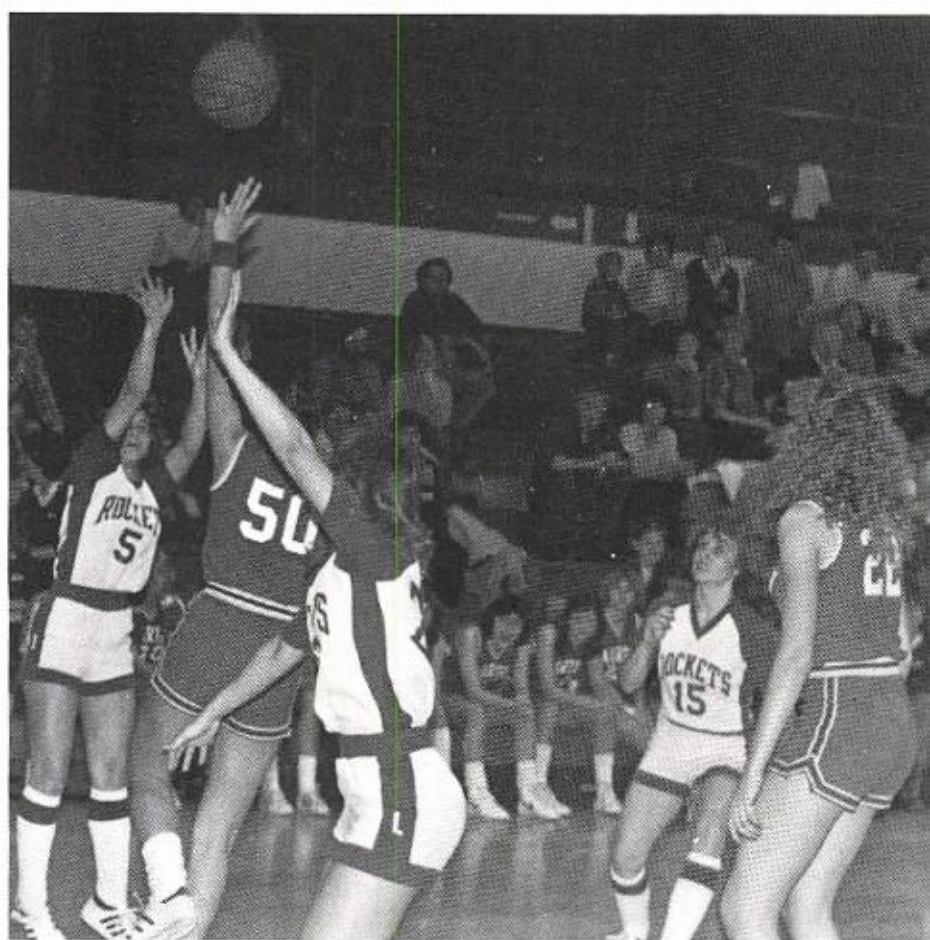

The girls' cross country team await the starting pistol.

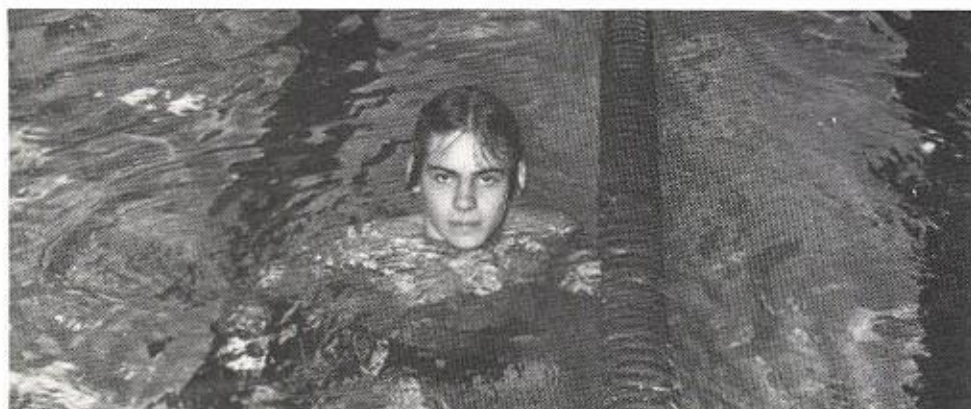

Mark Fauber attempts to pin his opponent.

Darin Richards shoots over his opponent for two points.

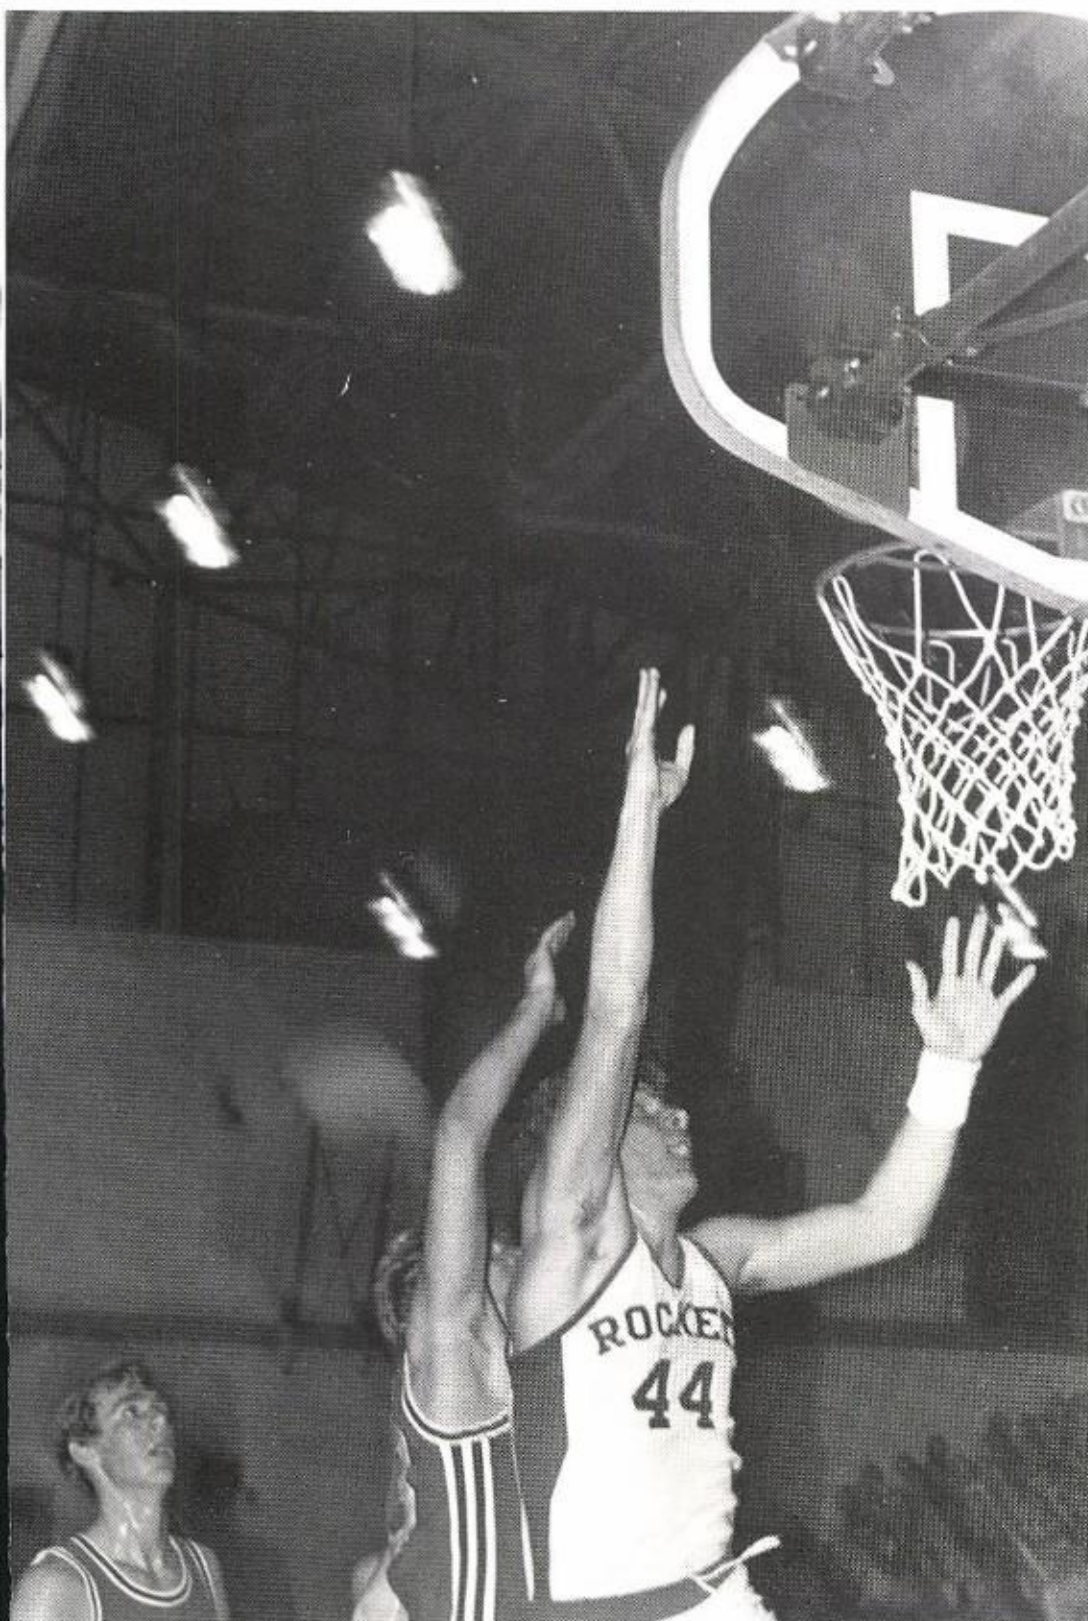

Deanna Thompson shoots from the corner as Deanna Jones and Debbie Rhea move in for the rebound.

Chris Dearing makes contact to move his teammates around the bases.

Tim Thomason beat his opponent for an easy lay-up.

Barry Irwin is off to a good start to win his race.

Lynn Barnett sets up the ball for a teammate to spike it.

Mike Lockwood and Dan Becker are neck and neck at the first hurdle.

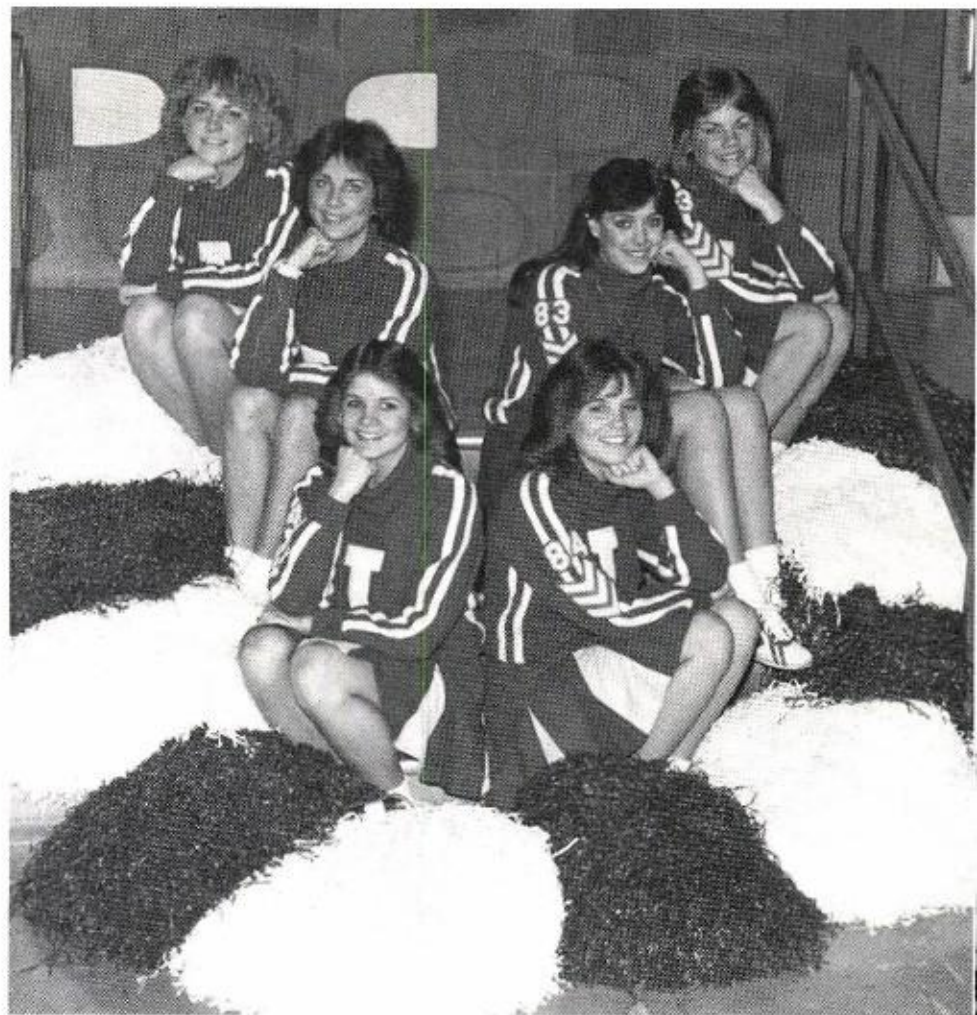

Scott Miller stretches for more distance in the long-jump.

Limestone Administrative Staff

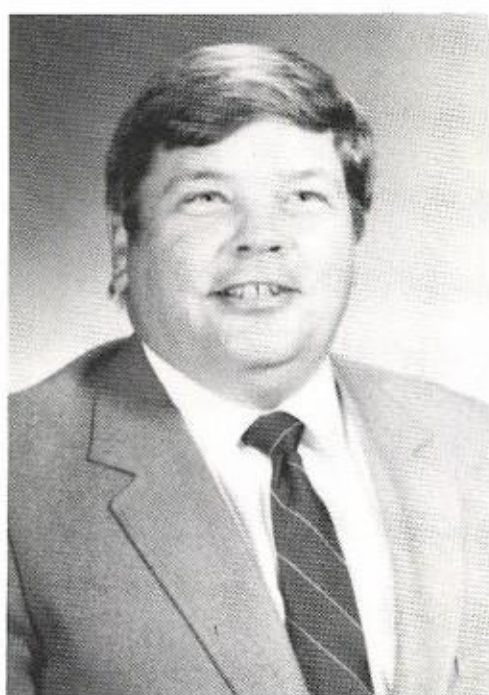

Dr. Norman T. Endsley
Superintendent

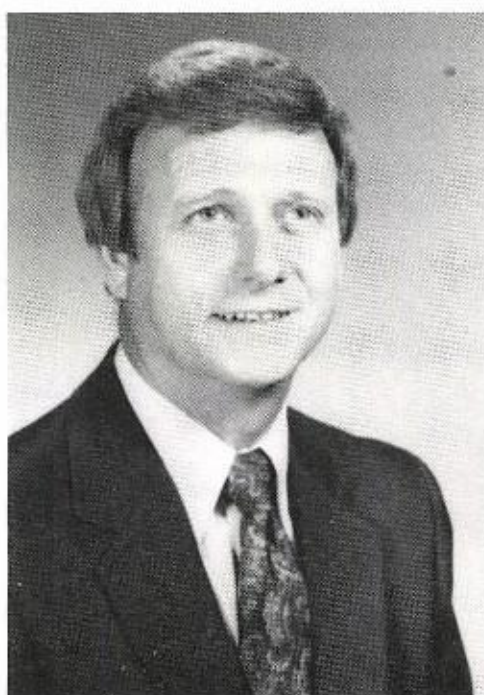

Six very capable people make up the Limestone Community High School administrative staff. To them falls the job of planning, organizing, spending, accounting, and implementing all of the programs which exist at Limestone. These persons deal not only with budgets and buildings but also with the discipline problems and other problems that arise outside the classroom. The future of a nation is entrusted to their care.

Limestone Board of Education

Mr. Archie "Doc" Yeley
President

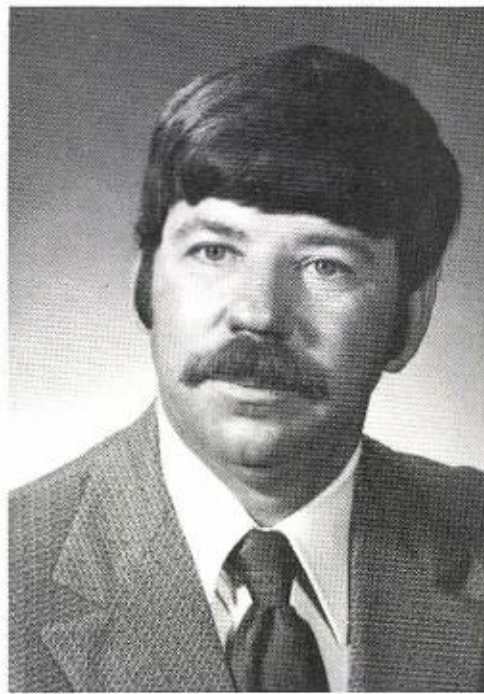

Mr. Michael G. Paschon
Secretary

The Limestone Community High School Board of Education is a vital part of our school, providing a link between the school and the community. These seven elected officials meet twice a month and receive no monetary compensation. Upon these progressive educational leaders rests the responsibility of setting our school policies. In addition, they approve the budget, hire staff, and are responsible to the community for their decisions. The school board president and the secretary are elected from within the board.

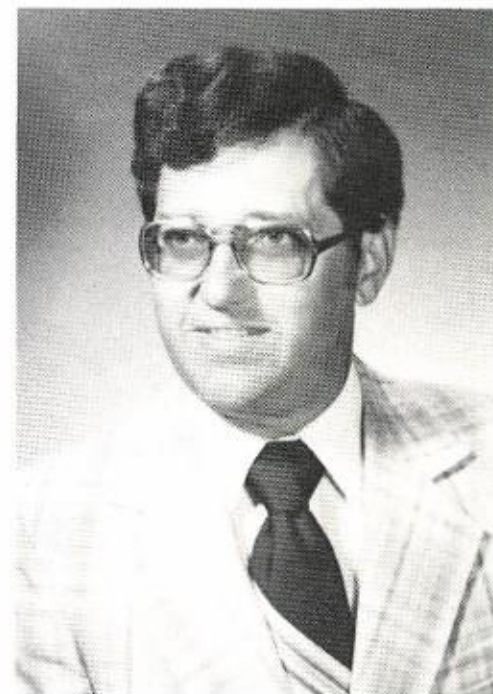

We are grateful to these public-minded citizens for their generosity of time and effort.

Rob Bader signs up to use the TRS-80 regularly; he is learning computer programming and finding out the advantages of using a micro-computer.

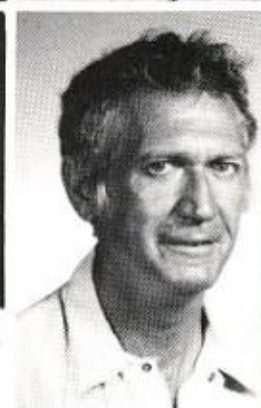

The library and the audio-visual center serve as a source for materials when it comes to ordering films, film strips, recordings, video tapes and reference materials. Besides the usual functions of a library, the media center serves as a place for study and research. Students are welcome to use the TRS-80 micro-computer to learn programming and to play constructive micro-computer games. The Instructional Media Center is staffed with a librarian, Mrs. Buzbee, a library technician, Mrs. Savage, a secretary, Mrs. Trotter, and the audio-visual director, Mr. Bangert. The Media Center is an exciting place. Come in and find out for yourself.

"25 Years . . . A Good Part of My Working Life"

Mr. Kenneth Oswald

Mr. Kenneth Oswald received his Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Illinois in 1957 and his Master of Science Degree from Bradley University in 1961. He has been on the staff of Limestone High School for the past twenty-five years. During this tenure, he taught science for nine years before entering the field of guidance and counseling. In addition to his duties in the classroom, Mr. Oswald supervised a number of extra-curricular activities including Hi-Y and Campus Life, and he was class sponsor for five years. He also coached intramural bowling league.

Mr. Oswald is a member of several professional organizations including IVA and IGUSA, LFT, IFT, and AFT. He is a Sunday school teacher and Sunday school superintendent. Currently he is serving as an elder.

His interests include bowling, golf, fishing, camping and traveling with his grandchildren.

Miss Jean Risen

Retiring after twenty-five years of dedicated service, Miss Jean Risen leaves a record of excellence. She graduated with distinction from Bradley University with honors in history and social science and was elected to Pi Lambda Theta, Pi Gamma Mu, Phi Alpha Theta, Pi Omega Pi, and Delta Pi Epsilon. She completed her graduate work at Illinois State University.

For twenty-five years Miss Risen has been teaching and training young people for entry level jobs in the business world. She has taught shorthand, secretarial office procedures, typing, business English, clerical office practice, and general business. She has continued to set an example of excellence for her fellow teachers as the chairman of the Business Department. In addition, she has served as sponsor of such extra-curricular activities as Future Teachers of America, and Steno Club.

Some of Miss Risen's more memorable experiences include receiving visits and letters from former students thanking her for the excellent training they received. The real highlight of her years has been the planning for improvements in the business department and seeing those plans and improvements implemented.

Mrs. Elaine Rule

May of 1983 marks the close of the twenty-fifth school year for Mrs. Elaine Rule, a member of the English Department. Mrs. Rule grew up in the East Peoria area and graduated from Bradley University where she earned her Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees. Some of the honors she received while in college include Alpha Lambda Delta (academic honorary), Pi Alpha Theta (history honorary), Pi Lambda Theta (education honorary), and Federation of Scholars. She graduated Summa Cum Laude.

In her twenty-five years at Limestone, she has taught Trigonometry, Solid Geometry, Algebra, American Authors, American Poetry, Mythology, American Humor and Folklore, Written Communications I and II, Freshman English, Junior English, Short Story, Reading Skills I and II, Creative Writing, and Expository Writing. She has also been the sponsor for a number of clubs and she has been the class adviser for various classes. Also, she has been active in a number of teacher organizations.

Outside of school, she is active in the Cursillo and TEC programs and is a member of St. Augustine Women's League. Mrs. Rule enjoys traveling, gardening, playing the piano and organ, and carving duck decoys.

LCHS Faculty Display Broad Experience

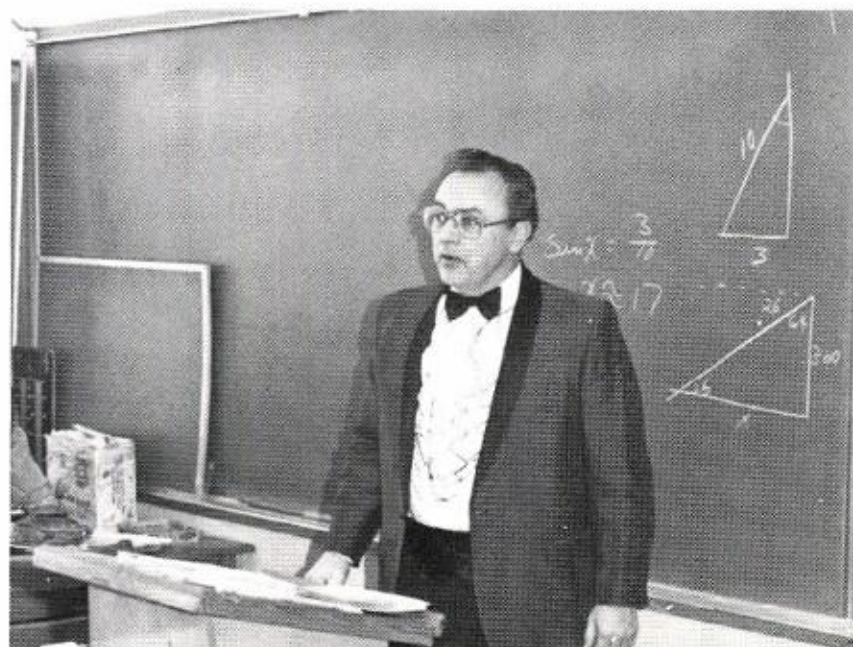

Coach Byrne has a go at David Story. How's your arm, Mr. Byrne?

Parents visited with Mr. Baylor during the openhouse.

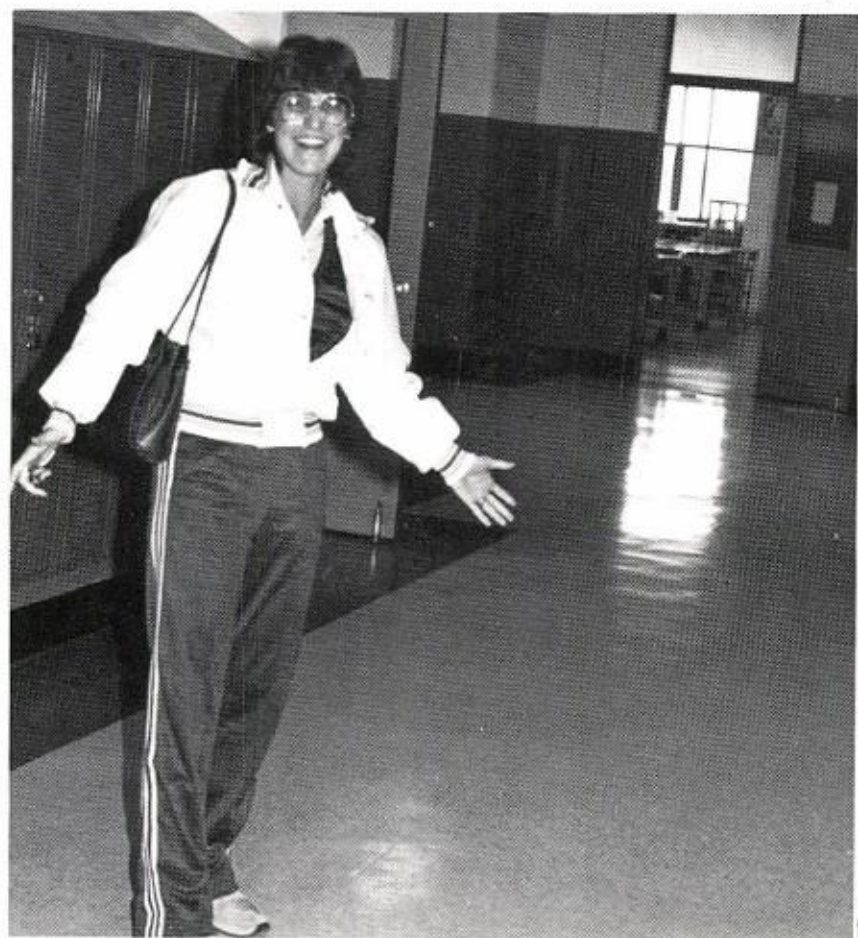

Christy Cramer gets some directions on how to use the dry mounting press from Mr. Bangert.

Mr. James Adams is very formal about teaching geometry.

Above, teachers gathered at Garfield and Garfield to hear "Wavelength" during an institute. (Right) "We won; what can I say," beams a proud Miss Dobrydnia.

Miss Risen Retires After 25 Years Service

Mrs. Rule was presented with a plaque marking twenty-five years of service by school board member Mrs. Ruth Byrne.

Electronics class is very formal, too; Mr. Camp is wearing a canary yellow tuxedo.

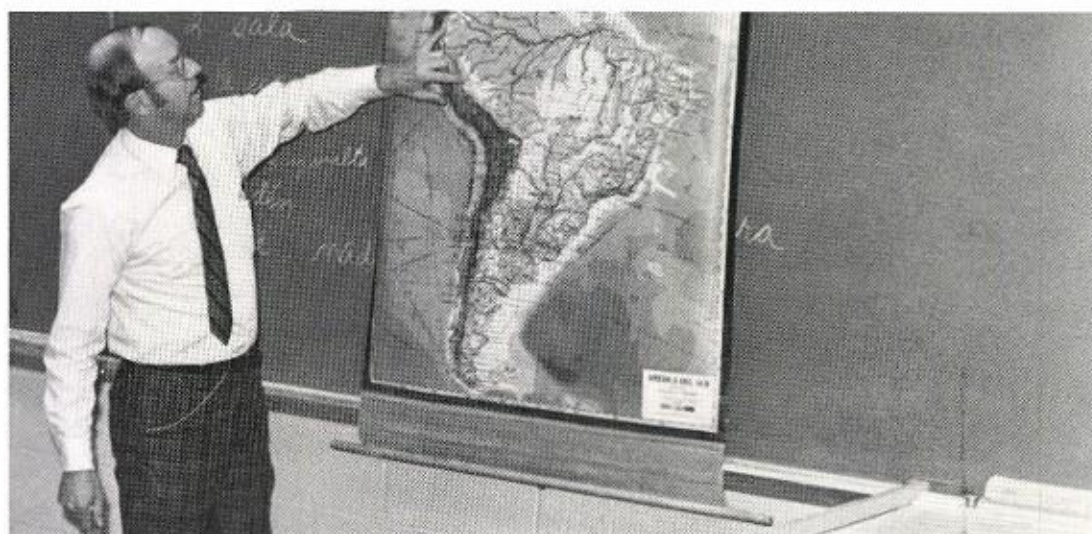

J. Michael Morris takes a bow.

Faculty members got to feel the exhilaration of deep breathing and loosening up during a workout with "Wavelength."

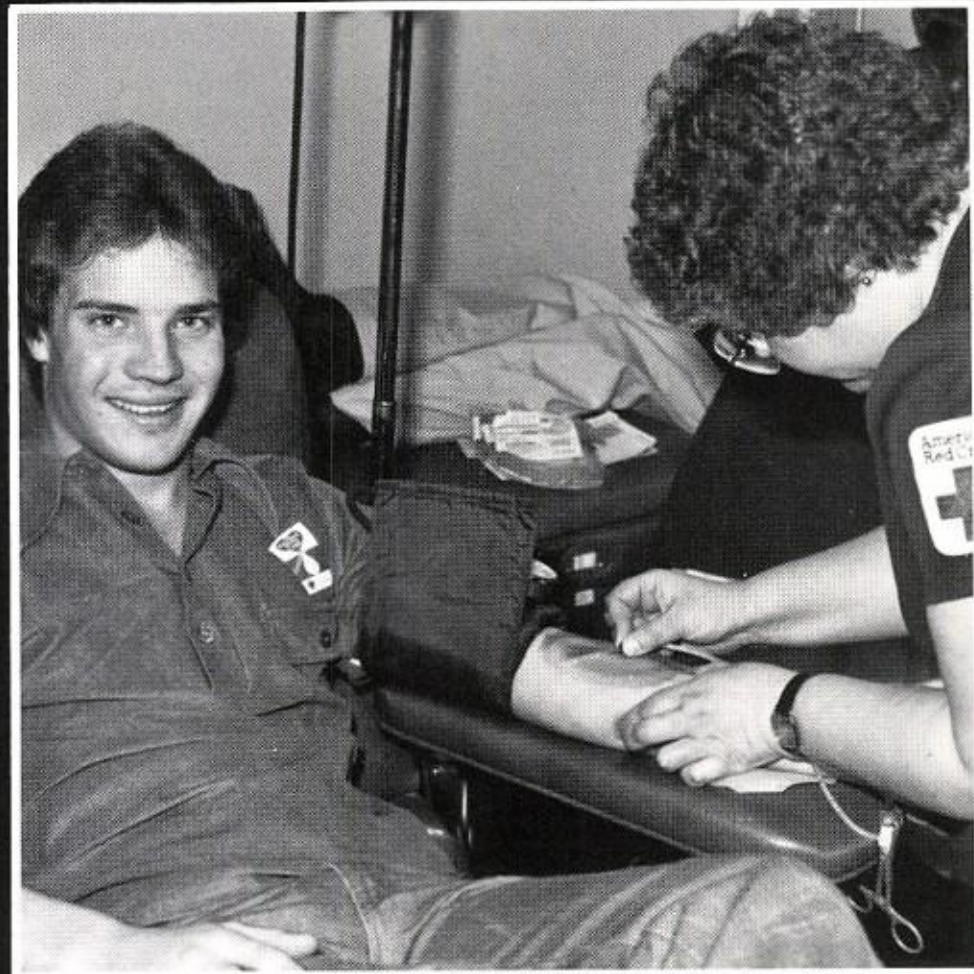

Retiring after 25 years of service, Miss Jean Risen served punch at the Honors Tea.

Mr. James Brockman, advisor.

Mr. Gordon Wassell, advisor.

The Student Council is the student governing body of the high school. Seven members are elected from each class in the spring of the year; freshmen are elected following the end of the first grading period in the fall after the first report card has been issued. While the individual representatives are elected from the respective classes, the president and vice-president are elected from the student body at large.

The Student Council is responsible for planning most of the student activities which are conducted throughout the school year. Some of the traditional activities include Homecoming, Thanksgiving Baskets, Christmas Door Decorations, Spirit Week, Vice-Versa Week, and various dances throughout the year. The Student Council meets daily, during first hour, with its advisers, Mr. Brockman and Mr. Wassell.

The 1982-83 council was led by Jody Wetterauer, president, Cindy Noe, vice-president, Amy Burgess, secretary, and Holly Salter, treasurer. Our congratulations to the 1982-83 Student Council for a job well done.

To a swell

guy who I hope
after will take it
last after high school.
enjoy your last year here.
I hope to see a lot of you after school

Take Care

raise a little hell.

back

Chris,

I hope by now that you realize how very much you have come to mean to me and that I love you very much. And that I never ever wanna let you go. And that I'll never ever let you let me go - so you'd might as well get all of those foolish ideas out of your head right now! Our relationship scares me because I never wanted to get so close to anyone and most of all I never wanted to need someone the way I need you. But we're in too deep to get out now, so I guess we both just have to try a little harder and fight a little more and hope for the best.

A life filled with love is a life that can endure,
a life that holds promise,
a life where dreams come true and where rainbows are ever abundant.

Chris & Lynnette

Love, love, love,
Lynnette
